I am looking for a student who will do the work that he is capable of doing.

3. LARRY KELLY — Social Studies, Varsity Boy's Gymnastics Coach

4. KENNETH KISTNER — Music Dept. Chairperson, Concert Band Director, Jazz Band Director, Marching Band Director

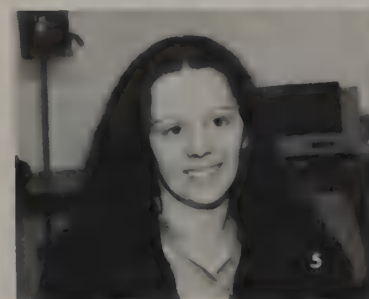

I'm looking for students who enjoy the challenge of being creative and who believe it is important to be involved.

5. MARCELLA KLOC — Special Education

I expect each student to live up to his or her individual capacity and do the best they can.

6. ANN KLUSENDORF — Mathematics

A positive and self-directed need for learning.

7. DOLORES KOTHEIMER

— English

I look for students who have pride and are neat, who show a joy and zest for learning and who approach all their assignments with gusto! Students with such qualities are the true products of the '80's.

8. ROBERT KUNDE — Social Studies

A student who treats his classes as a discipline for life knowing that he must always give a maximum effort good or bad.

9. LAWRENCE LAND — Industrial Education

I look for a student who knows how to play the game of education. One who realizes that at this period of time, his/her job is going to school. The job performance here determines the job success elsewhere. How many people have seen a "Help Wanted" sign saying: "Wanted, undisciplined illiterate Dummy for high paying career?"

10. ANN LARSON — English

An open mind and a willingness to co-operate.

11. NANCY LATAS — Home Economics

12. RICHARD LATHROP

3. PHYLLIS O'NEILL — Social Studies
Honesty.

4. LAUREL OSTERMAN — Music, Music Director — "Sound of Music," "Bye Bye Birdie," Pep Band Director, Varsity Band Director

Students I enjoy teaching are those that try to relate to all learning experiences, rather than only being interested in things that relate directly to them. In other words, I enjoy students that love learning — for its intrinsic value. I want my student-teacher relationships to be ones of mutual respect and interest in self-growth through music.

5. ROBERT PEASLEE — Math
An inquisitive individual who wishes to learn.

6. JAMES PIASKOWY — Math, Cross Country Head Coach
Open eyes, an open mind and a sincere heart.

7. KATHY PILAT — Art, Shield Sponsor, Junior Class Sponsor

I expect students to be honest, to take responsibility for their words and actions and to be respectful of others and the things around them. I enjoy those who have a desire to learn and a pleasant attitude.

8. CYNTHIA PITELKA — Business

Students should pay attention in class and do their work so they can learn. I would like my students to act mature and not disrupt class, they should consider learning important, because what they learn now will affect the rest of their life.

9. CHRISTINE POLITO — Special Education

A willingness to listen — to get involved and to try!

10. MARILYN QUINN — Pupil Personnel Service Enthusiasm.

11. DENNIS RADIGAN — Student Service Bureau

Department Chairperson

A commitment to learning and a willingness to assume his share of the responsibility for it.

2. LINDA REYNOLDS — Physical Education, Girls Track Coach, Girls Cross Country Coach

In my class I expect a student to try and do their best. It doesn't matter to me what their skill level is as long as they work to their potential and try to cooperate with me.

3. ROBERT RHINEHART — Industrial Arts Dept. Chairperson

4. CHRISTOPHER RICE — English

5. JOSEPH RICKEN — English

A student should enjoy people, fun, growing up, learning, and life. Enjoy each equally. Too much of one is too narrow.

6. TIM RICORDATI — Cooperative Education, DECA Club Sponsor, Sophomore Class Sponsor

Students need to have an interest in learning not only about the subject matter itself, but also how it applies in the real world.

7. JACK ROECKEMAN — Music

8. HOWARD RUBIN — Social Studies, Head Girls Gymnastics Coach, Sophomore Boys Gymnastics Coach

9.2 or better and R.O.V. (Risk, Originality and Virtuosity).

9. MYRA SANDERS — English

I look for "willingness to work" and "open-mindedness" in a student. I believe that these two qualities contribute greatly toward enabling a student to learn from a teacher and from their own experiences.

10. DAVID SAUNDERS — Business

I'm looking for students that will work at their capacity no matter what else is going on in their life.

11. LEN SCADUTO — Physical Education, Varsity Basketball Coach

Plenty of school spirit or 20 points a game.

12. VERN SCARPELLI — English, Varsity Boys Swim Coach

A smile and a sincere, honest effort.

1. RICH SCHERUBEL —
Art, Art Club Sponsor

I appreciate independent thinking, a willingness to get involved and try new things, honesty, openness, kindness, and a sense of humor.

Assistant Girls Swimming Coach

I am looking for a student who wants to be involved in learning a new skill that will remain with him or her for life.

3. NETA SCHWARZ — Pupil
Personnel Services, Girls Bowling Sponsor

Mutual respect, honesty and responsibility for following through with what was said.

4. DANIEL SCOTT — Industrial
Education, Freshman Class Sponsor, Freshman Basketball Coach

Trust, respect, dedication and in the end, maturity.

5. JAMES SMENOS — Pupil Personnel Services

A willingness to search.

6. BEN A. SMITH — Science
Department Chairperson, Student Council
Sponsor

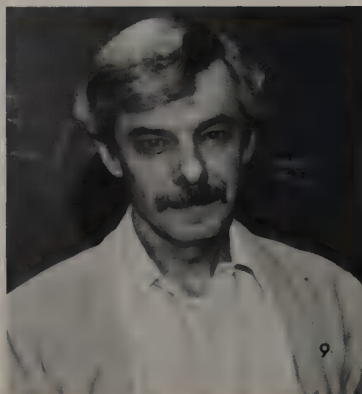

The non-aphathetic student. One that is motivated toward some goal, be it academic or extra-curricular and works to his best ability to reach his/her goal.

7. DAVID SOVEREEN — Social Studies

8. CINDY STERNISHA — Science, Varsity Girls Tennis Coach

9. MARTY STITZER — Math

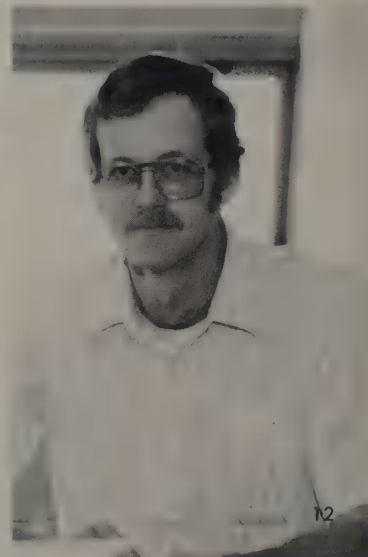

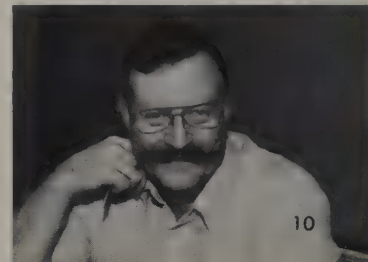

10. DONALD STONE — Science
I look for vital signs in a student.

11. TED STORER — Physical Education, Assistant Boys Track Coach
Someone who is interested in learning something in my class.

12. ROBERT STOY — Co-operative Education, Key Club Sponsor

Students who are eager to improve by showing responsible attitudes toward work.

1. SKIP SULLIVAN — Social Studies, Assistant Varsity Football Coach, Head Sophomore Basketball Coach

I look for a student to be pleasant and respectful and want to be respected. I also look for them to give their best effort so they can have pride in themselves.

2. JANE SURMA — Physical Education, Health, Sophomore Volleyball Coach, Varsity Girls Basketball Coach, Varsity Softball Coach.

A student who is hard working, creative, imaginative and is willing to learn and open to new experiences.

3. CANDY SWETZ — English, Spanish Club Sponsor

and Social Studies
A commitment.

9. KENT YOUNGREN —
Math
Continuous and conscientious study culminating in comprehension.

10. GERRY ZEMLA — English, Special Services
I'd like students to have a sense of excitement about themselves and the world around them.

11. FRED PARKS — Athletic Director

12. I. M. HUNGRY — Cafeteria Food Tasting Department
Chairperson, Archaeology Club
Sponsor
Brilliance, Organization, Neatness, Enthusiasm and Sincerity.

1. MERCEDES COX — Permanent Substitute

2. NANCY JACOBUS — Permanent Substitute

3. CHERYL MICHALS — Permanent Substitute, Freshman Girls Volleyball Coach

4. TERRY MULRENIN — Permanent Substitute, Assistant Freshman Football Coach, Assistant Varsity Wrestling Coach

Respect, understanding and cooperation. If they respect me, there is understanding involved. If we understand each other, we have cooperation.

5. GARY PECHLOFF — Permanent Substitute.

6. GLENN WATT — Permanent Substitute, Head Freshman Football Coach, Freshman Baseball Coach.

A good attitude toward themselves and others and the desire to give their best effort at everything.

Activities

Boys Bowling

Boys Bowling is a two phased activity. The first phase permits all boys from the entire student body to participate. The second phase is a follow-up on phase one, whereby students who develop their skills participate in inter-scholastic High School Conference Competition. Last year Oak Lawn's Bowling Team won Conference and has promising prospects of achieving the same this year, 1981.

Oliver!

Spring 180

On May 22, 23 and 24 Oak Lawn's Auditorium Gym was transferred into the seamy streets of victorian London for the 1980 Spring Musical production of "Oliver!" Sharri Simpson (Oliver), Tim Reyna (Fagin), Vicky Kolinski (Nancy), Jayne Anderson (The Artful Dodger) and Jim Xeros (Bill Sykes) portrayed the lead roles while a total of 58 students sang and danced as various London thieves and townspeople. Mr. Tom Dzurison directed and choreographed the production with Bill Knapp acting as assistant director. Ms. Laurel Osterman conducted an eighteen piece orchestra consisting of Oak Lawn students while Ms. Annemarie Coveny designed a set which revolved around on the floor to create different settings.

Hope you enjoy it!
Ms. Pilat

The members of the 1981 Shield would like to extend thanks to the Board of Education, the administration and the staff of Oak Lawn Community High School for their patience and assistance with this yearbook.

We went through many rough times but Mr. Ken Nemsick and Ms. Cyndi Thomason from Taylor Publishing Co. counseled and pulled us through.

We wish to recognize Mr. Don Millsap and Root Photographers for the color, variety and excitement in the book and for rushing photos when desperately needed. And to the photographers themselves for their genuine concern in providing us with winning photos.

MANY of our faculty members and school staff were exceptionally helpful and to you we would like to say "Thank you" for we have become a success!

Ms. Kathy Pilat, Advisor, Mari Schmitz, Editor-in-Chief, and the Shield Staff.
